(d) Old Melody Arr. by Performer
March Pontifical Gounod

A delightful social event of Monday evening was a Lagoon party given in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes and their young guest, Miss Winnie Rhoades, by James McGregor. A beautifully appointed dinner was served, and dancing, roller skating and other amusements afforded the popular resort were indulged in by the young people who were present on the occasion.

Professor and Mrs. Lewis A. Merrill entertained Governor and Mrs. William Spry, and Senator and Mrs. Carl A. Badger, Sunday evening, with a prettily arranged dinner given at their home.

Mrs. R. H. Terhune announces the engagement of her daughter, Pauline Zabriske, to Parker Gilbert Stevens, Thursday, June 23, in Chicago. The Terhune family is one of the old Salt Lake families, having lived here many years. The bride was born and grew up in the city, and was a popular member of her social set until she left a few years ago with her mother to make her home elsewhere.

A pleasant afternoon social affair of yesterday was given by Mrs. David Dupuis and Miss Fanny Tischner at the home of the former in honor of Mrs. Joseph Thomastoff of New York, who is visiting her mother, Mrs. Angus McKellar, sr. Between thirty-five and forty guests enjoyed the afternoon, when cards was the principal feature. Delightful musical numbers were given by the Misses Jennie and Ruby Jacobson on piano and violin. The parlors and the dining room were attractive with vases of carnations, with a profusion of marigolds used in the reception hall. The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mrs. J. T. Forster.

Mrs. Frederick Eberhart entertained very pleasantly yesterday afternoon in compliment to her guests Mrs. Wiedforger of Portland and Mrs. Duvall of Denver, when thirty-five guests were present to meet the out-of-town visitors. The affair was in the nature of a Kensington, and the rooms were prettily decorated with red and white sweet peas, the prevailing colors also being carried throughout the refreshments. The hostess was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. C. A. McFarland.

Mrs. R. M. Breeden entertained very informally at bridge yesterday afternoon, at her home in Fourth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred G. Brim announce the engagement of their daughter, Viola, to James P. Ridges. The wedding will take place July 21.

Mrs. J. J. Sorenson announces the engagement of her daughter, Carrie, to Paul H. Stain of Sugar House, the marriage to take place in August.

A pretty home wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Camomile in the southeastern part of the city, when their daughter, Edna, was married to Don L. Lewis. The Rev. Charles E. Perkins performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock in the presence of the immediate family. The bride wore a dainty white messaline gown trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of white roses, and her attendant, Miss Selma Stanford, wore a pretty costume of chiffon organdie, carrying an armful of marguerites. Homer Porter was best man. The rooms were effectively decorated with palms, carnations and roses. A wedding supper followed the ceremony, when twenty-two sat down to the table. In the evening, from 8 to 11, a delightful reception followed, which was attended by a hundred friends of the popular young couple. The lawn and veranda were brilliantly lighted, and a stringed orchestra played during the evening. Punch was also served on the veranda by Miss Fuschia Forest, while Miss Gelsch, Miss Bertha Price, and the Misses Minnie and Viola Camomile presided in the dining room. Mr. and Mrs. Camomile were assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Charles Gelsch and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Camomile. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis went at once to their home in Harvard avenue, where they will be at home to their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Woodbridge of the Stauffer apartments left last evening for Nevada, to be absent from Salt Lake indefinitely.

Mrs. F. J. Fabian arrived Monday evening from an eastern trip of several months. Harold Fabian followed yesterday.

Mrs. Claude S. Williams returned Monday from a three weeks' visit on the Pacific coast. Mr. Williams went to California to accompany her home.

Miss Edith Beless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Beless, returned to her home yesterday from St. Mark's hospital, after a two weeks' stay, and is rapidly recovering from her recent illness.

Word has been received from Lieutenant and Mrs. Sherman A. White and Miss Marjorie Jacobs, who have landed in Honolulu, where they will remain a few days before going on to the Philippines where Lieut. White will join his regiment.

Dr. and Mrs. G. P. Stallman of Fort Douglas have for their guest, Miss Selden of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lange of Cincinnati arrived in the city last evening and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lambourne. This evening Mr. and Mrs. Lange, Mr. and Mrs. Lambourne and their daughters, the Misses Ruby Lambourne and Miss Carla Lange, will leave for a ten days' trip through the Yellowstone park.

George and Park Dover will leave today for Oakland, California, to make their home with their sister.

Miss Birdie Anderson entertained Monday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Sullivan, who leaves in a short time for the east. The evening was very pleasantly spent in music and games, when Miss Irene Conners presided at the piano, after which dainty refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Cleo and Pearl Love, Mary and Jessie Watson, Irene and Lucille Condie, Nellie Burton, Nellie Potts, Nellie Anderson, Lyle Brimley, Ella and Rebecca Jensen, Birdie Anderson, Mrs. J. W. Sullivan, Mrs. F. E. Pitts, Mrs. A. C. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Geertson, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cecil, C. Miller, J. Leon and O. Anderson.

Mrs. Ernest Brown will entertain the members of the Sego Lily club Thursday afternoon at her home in Eighth avenue.

During the hot weather months, Mrs. Lee Jones is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Eaton, in Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. Frank and children have gone to Springville to visit Mrs. M. Meisel for several days.

Miss Adelaide Jacobson will be guest of honor at a lake party Wednesday night, given by Miss Luella Hays. Miss Jacobson will leave for the canyon the end of the week.

Taking Advantage of Market Conditions Brings

CHOICE GARMENTS FOR SUMMER WEAR

at Actual 50% to 70% Savings on Sale Wednesday

Told the story Sunday. The makers' season is now over. Most of them are planning their fall campaigns. To get their plants in readiness they find it good business to dispose of present stocks at a loss—hence, spick, span, new skirts and summer dresses are here today at half price and less.

But the breadth of this Last Great Sale of the Season involves more than makers' losses. We also take a loss. Practically every garment from regular stocks is included, at actual reductions ranging up to 70%. 27 window displays of these garments at present price-reductions speak more forcibly than words of the decisive savings.

Summer's Approved Fashions

in Cool Wash Dresses

Usual Prices Are Halved

Taking advantage of market conditions brings some of the prettiest wash dresses of the season at about half the usual price. Hundreds of dresses involved, including every dress from our own good stock. On some of these the reductions are not a full half. Too many to describe in detail, but any woman can be suited. Various of lawns, dimities, batiste, linens, lingerie effects, etc. All colors, color combinations and whites.

All now selling thus:

$3.75 Dresses	$1.75	$9.50 Dresses	$4.95
$5.50 Dresses	$2.95	$16.50 Dresses	$10.95

All other dresses in the department reduced

$2.98

for Silk Petticoats

The season's clean-up of a petticoat maker, and broken lines from our own good stock. Mostly $5 values; some worth up to $8. Plains and fancies; light, medium and dark colors.

for suits worth to $40

Some of our best suits regrouped for quick clearance. Made of imported fabrics, smartly tailored styles. Thorough workmanship. Silk linings, 32 to 34-inch coats. Plaited skirts. Colors and black.

A Sale of Bedding Stuffs
Sheets, Spreads, Pillow Cases, Etc.

Rummaging through the bedding stock, our buyer found too many of this lot, not enough of that lot. The small lots are placed on the counter at new price reductions for we seldom advertise lots that won't last all day. Of the larger lots these hints:
